The photos seem to enlarge the purses. They turned out smaller, but so cute as they were. You could leave off the handles and close the "pocket" to crochet as a toy instead of a purse. They are fun to personalize and add embellishments to. Fun projects.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. ... the little ones you are doing them for absolutely love them. My daughter and I have made almost all of them at least once!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Very Nice BookBy Happy ReaderWould've given it five stars, but I've found that there could've been some details added to instructions that would've been helpful. Also, I found the format of how the instructions are presented to be a bit cumbersome with having to flip pages back and forth to figure things out for any given purse. Otherwise, very cute patterns, nice clear print and good instructions so far.

Crochet doesn't get cuter than this! Six adorable animals by Cindy Harris make themselves useful as children's purse pets. Bright button eyes and lots of individual detail give the "critters" their appealing personalities. A flap closure keeps necessities safely inside the handbag. Your little sweetheart will be delighted to take her new animal friend with her everywhere she goes. Basic purse to crochet (11" long by 6" tall) and finishing instructions for 6 purse pets: puppy, kitten, bunny, bear, piggy, and cow.
