He wanted this book because he uses it in the shop when he needs the formulas for some of the measurements and other handy things it contains. At first when I looked it up, I saw this book priced at $500+ new on another user!! I was in shock, what the hell did this book have?? But then I saw that other sellers had this book, but it was used. Whenever I purchase something, I always purchase in the condition: new. But at that price, I was definitely going to look thru the used offers. I searched thru each sellers history came across this seller. They had the book I needed in I believe it was 'great condition' the seller also provided a tracking number. Oh did I mention for $8! plus $2.99 s/h. Still a great deal! Ordered the book right away (last one in stock too) it arrived in less than 5 days! Perfect condition, just like new. Boyfriend is using it everyday at work, just what he needed Thank you so much!!
